

*1 - Options only available during a non-multicast audio stream

*2 - Server will automatically assume that client has pressed stop since it can no longer read from the control channel